HAVANA, Sept. 11.—
President Ramon Grau San
Martin today invited immediate American recognition of the new Cuban government in an exclusive interview with
International News Service.

The new president took this step unofficially through International News Service since under international law the second revolution
stripped United States Ambassador Sumner Welles of his ambassadorial status.

Can't Deal With Welles.
Cuba will be unable to deal officially with Welles until the United States recognized the new administration, it was pointed out.

"I hope and believe that American recognition will come to our government," the president declared.

"I know the American people and President Roosevelt are in thorough accord with the principle of free determination of peoples. A genuine representative government in the broadest sense can not fail to appeal to their sentiments of fair play."

President Grau San Martin pledged immediate steps to restore constitutional government through a convention and with "free, unham-pered elections, in which voters and not bullets will be the deciding factor."

"The accord between the United States and Cuba never ceased to exist," he said. "Our debts to American bankers will be met, there is no question about this."

Outlines Program
The president outlined his immediate governmental program as follows:

Modification of existing treaties to lower the "super-high" tariff wall

Epworth To Invite Erie Conference Gathering Of 1934

New Castle will be the location of the 1934 conference of the Erie Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church if the invitation of the board of the church held Sunday morning it was unanimously decided to extend an invitation for the 1934 conference to meet in Epworth church. The invitation will be extended at the conference to be held in Meadville this week.

It has been some time since the conference was held in New Castle.
One the several occasions it has been here it has been held in the First M. E. church because of the families of that church. The new Epworth church is ideally situated for the conference, has plenty of conference rooms, a large auditorium and a splendid dining room in the basement.

If the invitation is accepted it is planned to have all the Methodist Episcopal churches in New Castle
join in acting as hosts to the conference.

Eight Drowned By Flood Waters In South Dakota

Two Entire Indian Families Are Swept To Death In Surging Flood Waters

CLOUDBURST PUTS STREAM OVER BANK

(International News Service)
CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Sept. 11.— Bodies of three victims were still missing today in the wake of a cloudburst which flooded lowlands of the Crow Creek Indian Reservation to a depth of four feet, drowning eight persons and inflicting
heavy property damage.

A twelve foot wall of water roared down Soldier's Creek without warning, driving tributary streams from their banks and tearing homes and barns from foundations.

Two Indian families, comprising eight persons, were trapped in their home while asleep and swept away to drown in the flood waters. Five of the bodies were recovered by Indian searching parties.

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—Texas
Guinan got religion at Aimee Semple McPherson's Angelus Temple last night—also a "big hand."

She marched right up to the altar
—picture hat, feather-trimmed
purse, dime-sized diamonds, exotic perfume, and all—knelt down at the railing and renounced her sins while the choir sang "Come to Jesus" and the congregation echoed "Halleluchine parked at the station caught fire about the engine. The machine belonged to an Ohio man, the damage to the car being negligible.

State Highway patrolmen will test prospective motor vehicle operators Tuesday in Sampson street. It is anticipated that more than three score applicants will take the examinations which will start at 10

Charge Welles Is Fomenting Strife

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—A charge that Ambassador Sumner Welles is fomenting trouble in Havana was made today in a cablegram received by the league for industrial democracy from a student group of the University of Havana.

"American Ambassador has brought together in the Hotel National 300 ex-officials, traitors, to instigate them to overthrow order and to provoke dismembering of American Marines," the cable said.

Seven Are Killed In Blast At Mine Near Pittsburgh

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11.—
Seven miners were killed and a number injured today when a spark from a motor set off an explosion three miles from the mouth of the Hillman Coal & Coke Company's Barking mine, accross the river from Springdale.

The number of dead, reported as three by the company, was given reporters by the Rev. Joseph A.
Mitsch of New Kensington, who administered the last rites of the Catholic church to the victims in the tiny mine lamphouse which was made into an improvised morgue.

The dead were:
Charles Salmon, 55,
Jake Miller,
Greely Tusing,
Joseph Franconi, 25, loader,
Michael Stopko, 35, loader,
Charles Solomon, 47, loader.
An unidentified man.

All the victims were residents of Springdale, from where the mine draws its workers.

Huge Crowds at Mine Huge crowds, mostly women and small children, milled around the mine as the reports of the explosion spread swiftly through the tiny community.

Miners escaping from the pit
surged with the crowd, seeking relatives and adding to the general confusion.

Mine officials said all the men were out of the mine, but a positive check-up would not be made because many of the workmen had

Two Guards And Convict Are Killed In Prison Break

(International News Service)
ANGOLA PRISON FARM, La.,
Sept. 11.—Eleven escaped convicts were at large today in a sugar cane field south of here after shooting their way out of the prison in a riotous break that claimed the lives of two guards and a convict.

Three hundred possemes, augmented by squads of state highway patrolmen sent by Gov. O. K. Allen, were in close pursuit. Prison officials announced that the desperadoes, all long-term convicts, were surrounded in the sugar cane field where they sought refuge.

Break During Ball Game.
Twelve prisoners staged the break
during visitors' hour when a baseball game was in progress between trustees and convicts. Drawing improvised pistols, they ordered Capt.

John Singleton, in charge of the camp, to accompany them or be murdered.

Singleton defied them, and one of the convicts shot him through the abdomen, seriously wounding the officer.

Next the desperadoes shot and killed Alfred Davis, trusty guard, and J. W. Fletcher, a guard, and looted the prison armory of guns and ammunition. The convicts jumped into an automobile and roared through the prison gate, firing into the baseball crowd as they escaped, wounding five persons.

Answering volleys fired by guards killed one of the escaping felons and wounded another as the automobile sped off. The body of the dead convict, William Stone, 28, of Dallas, Tex., was later found in the abandoned automobile near the farm.

President Ramon Grau San

worked feverishly today to restore normal conditions in revolt-torn Cuba.

The day-old government faced three major problems in completing the cabinet, settling its controversy with the defiant army officers who were ousted in the overthrow of the recurring rumors of Communist ac-

President Grau San Martin was

the papers like this don't par-

Miners questioned by reporters said a spark in the motor had set off the explosion. The supports of west six section and west seven section caved in. It was in these two sections that all the dead were found.

One miner said the fan at that end of the mine had been turned off for repairs yesterday for a short while. It was on this morning, however, before the day shift went to work.

GEN. JOHNSON STILL SEEKS AGREEMENT ON CODE FOR COAL

steel, oil and lumber industries to codes revised by him as a great achievement for the NRA.

See NRA Progress. With the coal struggle moving inevitably toward a final decision by Mr. Roosevelt and Johnson this week, the NRA claimed marked progress in many lines of endeavor and encountered resistance in others.

As recovery officials plunged into a critical week, developments included:

1. Fresh reports of an increasing number of firms enrolling under the blue eagle and strong support by consumers. Many cities claimed 98 to 100 per cent success in their blue eagle drives.

2. Definite reports of increased employment in various cities, with mixed trends in the course of business. Relief demands in many cities lowered.

3. Spokesmen for motion picture industry here for conferences preceding opening of hearings on proposed code tomorrow.

4. Non-union manufacturers continuing battle for "merit clause" in codes, despite Johnson's adverse opinion. Formal ruling to be made at shoe code hearing.

5. Decision near on price-fixing policy, as consumers advisory board breaks with Deputy Administrator A. D. Whiteside on proposed retail code. Whiteside favors price protection for retailers.

6. Appeal issued to industry and labor by Senator Wagner of New York, chairman of National Labor board to end feuds and cooperate with president.

7. President Roosevelt, Johnson and Secretary of Interior Ickes to canvass progress made on readjusting oil industry under code, with price-fixing a major subject.

Coal Issue Near Crisis

The bituminous coal issue will be crystallized in a public hearing tomorrow. Meanwhile Johnson and his aides were conferring with groups of operators, considering their formal objections and making revisions in the code designed to win at least reluctant consent to its imposition.

The small group of Alabama operators apparently had burned their bridges behind them, having declared the code could not possibly be made satisfactory unless the industry on which it is based is revised.

The powerful Appalachian group was dissatisfied, while the central and western operators wanted the code with some changes. Revolt was threatened by the Western Kentucky group.

Revision of the code will modify the plan for settling labor disputes and make more definite the price-control plan contemplated through the formation of selling agencies.

The basic objection of the operators most vigorously fighting the code is that it puts the industry entirely under government control. They hold, is not contemplated by the law.

Johnson said his confidence that the NRA would get an agreement on a coal code "remains unshaken."

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Sept. 11.—Martin F. Ryan, insurgent mine union leader who almost single-handedly prolonged the recent bloody coal strike in Fayette county three days after an agreement was signed, today declared he had pledged from leaders in practically every southwestern mine to strike Wednesday unless a coal code is adopted.

Huge rallies of miners in Fayette and Greene counties, hotbeds of the recent strike, voted to take a "hold-day" Wednesday unless the code has been adopted after listening to Marward J. Ryan announces.

are the provokers we must be on the alert to keep out.

Judge Robert Syer, presiding in the Lamson murder trial is leaning backward to give David Lamson a fair trial. If defense expert, criminalist Edwin O. Henrich is barred from giving a graphic explanation of how Aliene Lamson in his opinion actually died from an accidental fall it will be because that kind of a hypothetical set-up is not legally admissible.

The Judge, the jury, every fair-minded person in the courtroom welcomes every scrap of legally admissible evidence that will help to clear up the mystery of the death of Aliene Lamson.

Yes, Ethel, in recent weeks our major troubles have been our miner troubles.

OCCRR organizations, as well as of the women's oppositionist party.

Nevertheless, Grau San Martin was faced with a knotty problem in the shape of a 24-hour ultimatum from deposed army officers, headquartered in the National hotel.

The officers demanded the recall of former provisional President Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, dissolution of congress, immediate election of a constitutional convention and the voiding of all decrees promulgated by former President Machado.

Havana business men expressed hope the administration would succeed in maintaining order as it has since the revolt against former President de Cespedes began.

Welles Opposed. The opposition to the new regime consists possibly of United States Ambassador Sumner Welles, who has not yet committed himself, and some of the ousted army officers, while part of the ABC is still antagonistic.

Mario G. Menocal and Carlos Mendietta are silent, while the young Communists have denounced the new government as an instrument of "Yankee imperialism."

Reports are constantly current that a counter-revolution is threatened, but unbiased observers believe the government is safe for the present, with its permanency assured if it obtains recognition from the United States.

Tension Eased. WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Cuba's naming of a president eased the tension here today but President Roosevelt feels it is not yet time to relax precautions for the safety of American lives and property in the island.

American warships concentrated in Cuban waters will continue on duty until it is felt all danger of governmental instability is past. This government wants assurance from the new Cuban leaders of an administration chosen by the people and capable of maintaining order.

Until such an administration is functioning, the American government will continue to maintain surveillance of the island.

The new president, Ramon Grau San Martin, is regarded by administration officials as a strong man and not too radical in some quarters it was predicted he would build a truly representative government.

Claims Ettinger Escaped From Jail Away Back In 1920

Deputy Sheriff William Reynolds reports that in looking up the record of Sherman Ettinger, who was arrested last week on an assault and battery charge it was found that he was wanted in the Lawrence county courts for breach of prison.

In 1917 it is claimed that Ettinger escaped from former Constable Nat Williams, while being taken to the office of Alderman Gross. He was recaptured and in 1920 broke jail, along with several other persons, by climbing out through a ventilator shaft to the roof. This is the charge upon which he is still wanted.

ELKS WILL GATHER. Members of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks will assemble in their lodge home, North Mill street, for the first regular meeting of the fall on Wednesday evening, September 13. Exalted Ruler Edward J. Ryan announces.

FIELD CLUB EVENT HONORS MRS. LEARNER

The New Castle Field Club was the ideal setting arranged for one of the most delightful parties of the season when Mrs. Judson Longstreet entertained a group of friends in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Howard Learner of Buffalo, N. Y., a bride of mid-August. The occasion was in the form of a luncheon-bridge and proved a complete surprise to the honored one.

At 1 o'clock a tasty menu was served at one large table centered with a huge bouquet of cut flowers flanked on either side by tall tapers. Novel wedding rings marked places for fourteen, the guest list being comprised of High School chums of the honored one. At the conclusion of serving another surprise was revealed when Mrs. Learner opened a number of attractively wrapped packages enfolding a collection of lovely miscellaneous gifts, remembrances from those surrounding her. Bridge followed away the remainder of the afternoon and prizes for honor scores were captured by Miss Doris Updegraff and Miss Mary Burns.

Those who participated included Misses Updegraff, Burns, Helen Blaha, Helen Weingartner, Lois Banks, Sylvia Martin, Mildred Schenck, Margaret and Martha Jane Longstreet, Mrs. Verle Mackey, Mrs. Mary Richards, Mrs. Evelyn Melvin, Mrs. Marian Reiber and the hostess, Mrs. Longstreet.

Mr. Learner joined his wife here Saturday evening. They have returned to their home in Buffalo.

MOTHERS CIRCLE PLANS TEA PARTY

One of the brilliant events of the week will be the tea party Tuesday evening from 6 to 8 in the parlors of the First Methodist church, sponsored by the Mothers Circle.

Mrs. E. F. G. Harper will be in charge of a most interesting program and W. G. Ayers is arranging an effective lighting arrangement.

Mrs. Fred Harlan, president of the class is in charge of the general arrangements.

CIRCULATING BOOK CLUB TO OPEN SEASON

The first fall meeting for members of the Circulating Book Club will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joseph Anderson, on Lincoln avenue, at 2:30 o'clock. Following routine work, an informal social period will be enjoyed.

Home Consumer Survey Slow In Some Districts
Find Many Women Ignorant Of Meaning Of NRA Campaign In Homes Of City

Work of enrolling the women of the city in the home consumer survey, now being conducted by New Castle clubwomen, under the direction of Mrs. S. D. Pearson, is coming slowly in some districts, Mrs. Pearson reported today, due to the fact that many of the women do not understand the purpose of the survey and refuse to sign the cards.

In many instances it has been necessary to make a return trip to the homes when the husbands were present, to explain the purpose of the drive.

This has been particularly true in the section where people of foreign extraction reside. It is hoped to have the work completed this week, however.

BY MARSHALL MASLIN

LET HER ALONE, TOO

I wrote an article telling wives how to treat their husbands when they come home silent and reserved. I told them to let the poor idiots alone, not to bother them, not to ask questions, not to assume anything solemn is out of gear—but just to let them alone.

And I've heard things about that article. Husbands have told me their wives said, "Huh!" when they read it. . . . A few wives have reminded me that they have their side, too, and don't I know that? Surely, I know it. Every husband does. Every wife is wiser than her husband. But most of the time he hasn't sense enough to act as he knows he should. He has sublime faith in his ability to "fix things up." And the result is he messes things up.

He comes home and realizes the instant he comes in the front door that his genial mood isn't quite in harmony with the domestic scene. His wife has something on her mind, just as he, sometimes, has something on his mind. She isn't angry. She isn't sad. But she may be worried about something; she may not be feeling exactly enthusiastic about this business of rearing a family. She may be temporarily "fed up." She wants to be let alone. Doesn't want to talk about it. Doesn't want to explain. She wants him to "understand," but she does not want any fuss about it.

But does he let her alone? No, he doesn't. He's a great believer in Talking Things Out—and more trouble has been made in this world by people insisting on Talking Things Out than could be jammed, pressed down, into the Grand Canyon. . . . But a man is a great believer in that sort of thing. He has profound faith in words as tools. So he talks and peters and wants to know What's the Matter, and may finally inflame a Mood into a Situation—just because he didn't have wisdom enough to let her alone.

And then, perhaps, he decides that Women Are Funny, and no man will ever be able to understand them, and he might as well give up trying to do so.

Some day both husbands and wives may learn that the secret of serene and happy marriage is Letting the Other Fellow Alone. . . . But I doubt it.

MISSED HIS VOCATION

Back in 1857, President James Buchanan named Isaiah Johnson postmaster at Summons, Illinois, with the usual instructions that he mail a quarterly report to the President. Not knowing what was expected of him, Postmaster Johnson sent the following as his first report:

"Mr. James Buchanan, President of the United States:

Dear Sir:—Been required by the instructions of the postoffice to report quarterly. I know herewith foolfill that please duty by reportin as follows. The harvestin has been going on peerty and most of the nabors have got their cuttin down. Wheat is hardly a average crop; on rolan land corn is yalerish, and wont turn out more than ten or fifteen bushel to the akre. The health of the community is only tolerable, and cholery has broke out about two and one-half miles from here. There is a powerful awakin on the subject of religion in the falls neighborhood, and many souls are being moid to know their sins for givon. Miss Nancy Smith, a nere nabor, had twins day before yesterday. One of them is supposed to be a seven monther, a poor scraggy thing and won't live half its day.

"This about awl I have to report the present quarter. Give my respects to Mrs. Buchanan."

—ISAIAH JOHNSON.

Now, Isaiah Johnson would have made an excellent correspondent for any weekly newspaper.

"BABES IN THE WOOD"

As the parent or son of a daughter at college, your experiences are not much different from those of other parents with children at college.

It is a surprise to you that the young folk cannot realize the difference in world financial conditions, even since they entered college.

As seniors the young people feel that they should be allowed more for expenses than they had in former college years.

And more than likely you were too liberal at that time and are feeling the effects of it now.

At the first you were too anxious that they should not be subject to hardships and disappointments and the regrets that you experienced when you were a youngster.

And you went too far the other way.

Perhaps young people have reduced expenses considerably.

To them it seems enough—to you, knowing your financial condition, the amount you must spend on them is still prohibitive.

But how can you expect them to understand finances, without experience in earning their way?

To thousands has come the necessity for retrenchment and naturally the objection to it from the young folk—the "babes in the wood."

(Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Many predict that real estate is coming back. It has been away for quite a spell. Perhaps the owners who have been trying to sell their homes for half what they had cost are to see the time they will be glad there were no takers.—Pasadena Post.

HERE'S A FUNNY ONE

Before Henry Ford brought out his Model T, the farmers were as isolated from the world at large as were the inhabitants of Iceland. Shopping trips to the city were rare events. As a result, the mail-order business flourished and grew fat and the mail-order catalogue occupied a position in the farm-house library only second to that of the family Bible. In the Sears-Roebuck catalogue, there was shown a cut of a pair of corduroy pants, elaborately described as to quality and priced at $3. Year after year the same cut, description and price reappeared. This persistence finally had its effect upon Hiram, a farm hand, who wrote Sears-Roebuck as follows:

"Dear friend, The more I been seeing them corduroy pants, the more I got to wanting them. If you ain't sold them yet, let me know and I will buy them."

Query By John W. Davis Brings Responses From Public, With Elaboration Of Theory That Greater Contentment Will Enue

A query from John W. Davis as to what the people will do with their extra hours of leisure under the recovery plan is answered by the press with some enthusiasm. The opportunity of better individual training and the enjoyment of recreation facilities provided by communities of more contented lives.

"One suspects," avers the SAN ANTONIO EVENING NEWS, "that the question of leisure is worrying the sociologists and the psychologists more than the persons immediately concerned." That paper thinks they probably "are too busy catching up with their gardening, housework, fishing, golfing, bridge or reading to give the matter much thought."

But the Evening News continues: "By and large, what to do with added leisure is less a social problem than what to do with the several million persons still lacking permanent jobs. Anyhow, many workers are solving their own leisure problems in a manner satisfactory to themselves. Some are going to night school; probably the promised 'opportunity schools' will enroll many more. Others will spend spare hours reading at libraries or riding hobbies. Probably few will pursue culture but that is no occasion of anxiety."

History of the National Recreation Association is recalled by the YOUNGSTOWN Vindicator, with the belief that its services increased, and the advice that "communities cannot ignore the new conditions they have to meet." The Youngstown paper continues: "The work period for millions is shortened by the Recovery Act, and the leisure they will have has been considered in many quarters some concern being expressed as to what the result will be, how the hours will be employed. The Recreation Association has a definite line of action, and having had experience of many years is in position to aid the national constructive movements."

In planning for this new time in which longer periods of leisure have been suddenly provided, the association has had in mind the greater need of educational and recreational services in every community."

Commenting on the cheers given in its own state at a meeting for support of the N. R. A. program, the PORTLAND OREGON JOURNAL, which alludes to "an America of life and business and recreation and pleasures, instead of the America that for nearly four years has been a land of despair," exclaims: "Why shouldn't the tidings be everywhere."

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.—I Corinthians, 15:58.

TAKEN AT HER WORD

Mary was telling her friend about her recent misunderstanding with her fiancé.

"It was really too bad," she said. "I ended by telling him I didn't want to see his face again."

Her friend nodded eagerly. "Was he fearfully upset?" she asked.

"That's the terrible part about it," said Mary. "He wasn't a bit upset. He just jumped up and switched off all the lights."

MONDAY SEPT. 11

Notables Born This Date—John Pollock, b. 1810, governor of Pennsylvania, who is responsible for God (not mentioned in the U. S. Constitution) being on U. S. money. As a result of his efforts, Salmon P. Chase, secretary of the treasury, in 1864 ordered in God We Trust placed on coins. The motto was authorized by congress. First coin to bear it was the now rare 2c piece. Ulysses Aldrovandus, b. 1522, Italian naturalist who founded, when he was 45, the first herbarium and one of the first botanical gardens and museums of natural history (in Bologna). James Thompson, b. 1700, Scottish poet. (Not to be confused with another Scot poet of the same name born in 1810.) He wrote the ode of Rule, Britannia, tragedies, many poems of nature. Quotation: Why should we kill the best of passions, love?

It aids the hero, bids ambitions rise To nobler heights, inspires immortal deeds. Even softens brutes, and adds a grace to virtue.

A poem about the then Prince of Wales (afterwards George VI), entitled Liberty, won Thompson a pension of the equivalent of $500 a year for life. It was one of the few poems that ever made a poet a fortune.

St. James' Hopwood Jeans, b. 1877, one-time professor of applied mathematics in Princeton university, now regarded as one of the world's greatest physicists, author of the best-seller The Mysterious Universe. Excerpt:

Into such a universe we have stumbled, if not exactly by mistake, at least as the result of what may properly be described as an accident. The use of such a word need not supply any surmise that our earth exists for accidents will happen, and if the universe goes on for long enough, every conceivable accident is likely to happen in time. It was, I think, Huxley who said that sixteen monkeys, set to strum unintelligently on typewriters for millions of millions of years would be bound in time to write all the books in the British Museum.

In the same way, millions of millions of stars wandering blindly through space for millions of millions of years are bound to meet with every kind of accident; a limited number are bound to meet with that special kind of accident which calls planetary systems (such as ours) into being.

Barnum, her manager, still reverberates, gives her a reputation out of proportion to her probable talents, because she was first opera singer to be press-agented—exploited like Texas Guinan, Alcee McPherson or Rudy Vallee. At 32 she married Otto Goldschmidt, lived for years in England, retired from the concert stage when 50, died at 67, was honored by a bust in Westminster Abbey.

1917—Georges Guynemend, the French ace of aces, was shot down, killed. Two Germans who made their way through the wreckage of a mine crater to his side and took his papers, gave him a hero's last honors, returned the papers after the war to the French government as historical mementoes of a brave man. UPPER CLASSMEN
RETURN THIS WEEK

Special Program For Early Days Of Week For First Year Students

Special To The News
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept.
11—What is thought to be the largest freshman class in the eighty-two year history of Westminster College reported today for the start of orientation week. Classes for first-year students start Tuesday morning.

A complete schedule of activities for the freshmen has been planned by Dean Carl E. Rankin, Dean Mary E. Turner and members of freshman advisory committee, headed by Dr. H. L. Davis.

Chapel assemblies, psychological tests, talks by various members of the faculty, and completion of details of registration and enrollment will keep the first year students busy during the day. Social programs will take place each evening. Tonight in the gymnasium a freshman song party will be held at which time the first year students will be taught the college songs and yells. Professor Alan B. Davis, director of music, will have charge of this party.

A "who's who" party for freshmen will be held in the gymnasium on Tuesday night under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. A formal tea for freshmen women will be held in Browns Hall Wednesday evening at 8:30.

Junior class young women will be hosts to the freshmen girls Thursday evening, conducting the new students on a tour of the town. A "big sister" picnic for first year women students will be held on Friday evening. The all college "who's who" party will be held in the gymnasium on Saturday evening.

More than 130 freshmen students have already registered in classes and the others will complete the details of registration today. Sophomores will register Wednesday afternoon: Juniors, Thursday morning and seniors, Thursday afternoon. Classes start on Friday morning. It is thought that the enrollment by Friday or Saturday will reach or pass the 700 mark. The freshman class will probably have a total of from 250 to 280 members.

Miss Pearl Stanley, having spent the past three weeks visiting relatives in Danville, Ky., has returned home. While there she also visited many interesting places at Lexington.

Red Cross Home Dietetics Course To Start Tuesday

Certificates Will Be Presented
To Those Who Complete Course

All arrangements have been completed for the course in Home Dietetics, which will be started Tuesday, under the direction of the Nutrition committee, of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross.

This course is open to any woman in the community, and registration may be made at the chapter offices, either by phone or a personal call. It will be under the supervision of enrolled Red Cross dieticians who have had considerable experience in this work.

The course will consist of 15 lessons, and those who complete the outline of lessons mapped out, will be presented with a handsome certificate by the American Red Cross.

Court Refuses To Grant Allowance

Opinion Handed Down In Petition Of Elizabeth Sharp
Lewis In Sharp Estate

In an opinion handed down at court Saturday, Judge R. L. Hildebrand refuses a petition of Elizabeth Sharp Lewis, in which she asked an allowance of principal from the estate of the late Sylvanus Sharp, her father, for use of her children.

Mr. Sharp, according to the opinion, left personal property to the amount of $12,283.02, and real estate on East Washington street, from which there is a rental of $40 per month. The Lawrence Savings and Trust Company was appointed trustee. Under various orders of court the amount on hands has been reduced to $3,787.05.

Under the will the income was left to Mrs. Lewis for the support and education of her children, and a provision was made for turning over some of the principal, should the trustee deem it necessary. The court holds that the hearing showed that Mrs. Lewis' husband is employed at a good salary, and that neither the trustee nor the court are of the opinion that, under the circumstances, it is necessary that any of the principal, be turned over.

Home from Cambridge Springs, Pa., where they played golf this week with attorneys from Beaver, Butler and Mercer counties on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, Lawrence county's party of lawyers reported a most enjoyable time.

From New Castle went Judge and Mrs. J. A. Chambers, Attorney and Mrs. H. A. Wilkinson, and Attorneys Wylie MacCallin, W. K. Huges, R. L. Wallace, Roy Jamison, George Muse, Walter Braham, Charles Young, Charles Matthews, Richard Dana and Robert McK. White. Court stenographer F. M. Rowland also accompanied the group. No inter-county matches were played.

Forfeits Of $110 Awarded To City

Place of Alex Harduk, 120 Center Way, was visited Saturday by the police, who were armed with a search warrant. The officers report they found a gallon container, a funnel and whiskey glasses.

Harduk and a male visitor were arrested and they put up forfeits and $10 respectively for their appearance Sunday morning before Mayor Mayne. They failed to appear and the money was declared forfeited to the city.

NEGRO BOY ACCUSED OF STEALING GUN

Rev. J. W. Kelley, of Wood street, Union Township, complained to the police Sunday a. m. that a negro boy who has been making his home with him had stolen a 38 calibre Spanish revolver, and 35 or 40 shells, also a watch of Mrs. Kelley, a suitcase, hat box and other articles. According to Rev. Kelley there was another boy involved in the affair. The police are investigating.

Man Injured As Milk Truck Is Damaged Sunday

Driver Falls Asleep And Truck Falls To Make Turn To Another Street

Sam Asclone of 105 Friendship St., is in the New Castle hospital suffering from injuries sustained Sunday morning, as he was riding in the milk truck of Dominick Scilio of the Ellwood City road, which was being driven by his brother Armando Asclone, aged 17. He sustained injuries of the left arm and face and is being held at the hospital for observation.

Armando Asclone gave the police another name, when arrested and claimed he had a driver's license. On investigation, it was found that he had no driver's license. He will be given a hearing before Mayor Charles B. Mayne on Tuesday. According to Armando Asclone, Dominick Scilio was entertaining some friends and asked him to make deliveries on his milk route. He was driving south on Crawford avenue and fell asleep, he claims, and at East Main street, instead of making the turn, his machine went over the curb onto the lawn of John Sanford. As he was backing out the truck went into a hole and the machine was damaged and his brother injured.

Man Drives Car Into City Garden

Answering a call Sunday morning at 2:15 a. m. to the place of E. H. McNees, 138 Fairmont avenue, the police found the overboard Wier of the Mt. Jackson road, had driven his car into the garden of Mr. McNees. On investigation, the police also found that Wier was without a driver's license. He was ordered to appear before Mayor Charles B. Mayne on Tuesday morning.

Auto repairs must be cheaper now. You seldom see a ten dollar bill that some mechanic has used as a towel.

Mayor Mayne Will Hear Case Tuesday

Police visited the place of Mrs. Alice Davis and Gustave Timm at 139 Elm street, Saturday evening about 9:30 o'clock. While they were attempting to get in, the latter is alleged to have dumped some moonshine. The police, however, report they secured 72 quarts of "home brew." Mayor Charles B. Mayne has set the hearing for Tuesday morning.

NO. 2 MINE

Charles Oakes and Charles Masters visited relatives at New Jersey over the week-end.

Miss Margaret Butchy, who is employed in Warren, spent several days with her parents here.

Mrs. Clarence Mathieson and children have returned home after a visit with her sister in Cleveland, O.

Miss Catherine Shaffer, a nurse of the Jamison Memorial hospital of New Castle, is spending a few days at the home of her parents.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Nazareth church will meet the first Thursday in September instead of the second, on account of the Mercer Fair.

Mrs. Don Mathieson spent last week at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, in Sharon. Mrs. Dorothy Hunter accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Serwatka and daughters, Mildred and Margaret, and Frank Kusnick of New Kensington, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stanko and son Steve, of Cleveland, O., and Mr. and Mrs. John Kline and family and Mrs. John Pollock of Youngstown, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Serwatka.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Widing, Mrs. Hilda Widing and daughter Anna, are visiting relatives in Chicago and plan to visit the Century of Progress Exposition.

John Zock, who has left this place for nearly six years and made his home in Italy with his parents, has returned back here Friday and is going to make his home with his brother, Joseph Zock.

Miss Cecil Grandey has returned home after a vacation in Cleveland. Mrs. Maude Hoyer of Cleveland has returned home after spending a few days at the home of her sisters, Mrs. Howard Grandey.

Mrs. McGill and daughter Helen of Grove City, Mrs. Ed. Mason and family of Butler and Mrs. McCandless and family of Grove City were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Jenkins Tuesday.

HUSBAND ARRESTED

Buster McKisson, negro, was arrested Saturday evening by Sergeant J. P. Steiner on the public square. It was found that a warrant had been issued by Alderman J. Lee Cooper in which he is charged with assault and battery by his wife and he has been turned over to the alderman.

Needy Family Asks For Old Furniture

Public Appeal Is Made Today—Truck Will Collect Donations

An appeal for old furniture which might now be stored in the attics of New Castle homes was made today in behalf of a needy family of Lawrence county, deserving of any help which citizens can give. The family, through the kindness of friends, had obtained a house to live in about 9 1/2 miles from the city. The needed furniture—a coal stove, beds, mattresses and other supplies—will be collected by a truck if donors call 1177-J.

Injured People Return To City

Alderman and Mrs. O. H. P. Green and Miss Myra Nixon of Richelieu avenue, and Mrs. George Nixon of New Brighton, who were all injured a few days ago in the automobile accident at Lodi, O., in which the latter's husband, George Nixon was home here last evening. Mrs. Green and Mrs. Nixon, who were the more seriously injured are confined to bed but are believed to be improving. The body of Mr. Nixon also arrived here Sunday morning and the funeral services were held this afternoon.

Raise Large Fund At Epworth Church

Due to the results of the Joash Chest which was held in Epworth church Sunday morning, the church will report to the annual conference in Meadville this week with a clear slate. Before the services Sunday morning the church was short about $900 in current expenses, a rather sizeable amount. The Joash chest donations raised the deficit and when Epworth church is called in the conference, it can report all current expenses met.

POLICE INVESTIGATE

Police answered the call of A. H. Davis to the George Washington junior high school on Euclid avenue last night, where Mr. Davis informed them that there had been a car come to the building and that a man in the car had put a gun on him and attempted to enter the school. The police returned after an investigation, reporting that everything was all right.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT

William C. McDaniel of R. D. No. 1 reported today that he was enroute east on Grant street at the Pennsylvania railroad crossing, as a truck and trailer bearing Illinois license 368-238 going east behind his machine, ran into the rear of his car. The Illinois license car was damaged.

BIG ENROLLMENT AT SHENANGO

Nearly 1,000 Pupils Are In Classes At Shenango Consolidated School

With 950 students enrolled as of noon today, the Shenango Consolidated School at East New Castle is more overcrowded than it was last year. Built to accommodate 500 students the building has been overcrowded for several years. Some slight easement of the situation was secured when five portable schools were installed but these care for only about 225 pupils, leaving 725 for the main building.

This year's high school department shows a record enrollment, 278 being entered. About twenty of this number is accounted for by reason of South New Castle Boro sending its tuition students to Shenango instead of New Castle.

Thirty teachers comprise the teaching staff this year, 2 of them, Miss Martha Swisher and Henry Sonnet being new. The school is under the supervision of G. W. Johnson, supervising principal for Shenango Township. Coach Edward Raney is pointing his football team for the first game of the season which occurs Friday when Shenango goes to Zelenople. Last year's opener was with Zelenople on Shenango grounds with Shenango winning. This year the team has but three letter men left from last year and Raney has the unenviable task of building a new team from green material.

Union Attendance Gains This Year

Supervising Principal Conway Reports 1,083 As School Enrollment

Enrollment reports from the Union township school authorities today disclosed a slightly larger township school attendance over the 1932-33 term, with the Union high figure slightly higher and the grade building figures slightly less than the past year. There were 1,083 pupils in attendance today. Supervising Principal Roy F. Conway announced.

Mr. Conway reported the attendance figures for the township buildings as follows:

Union high school—High school, 542; grade classes, 159. Sunny avenue—159. White—65. Scotland Lane—33. Washington—29. Fairview—30. Harbor—44. Linden Grove—22.

Four new teachers, Jay Rudolph, Walter Burkhardt and Milton Patterson, in the high school division, and Miss Elizabeth Wallace in the grade school unit commenced their teaching duties last week.

To Republican Voters of Lawrence County:

You are about to nominate a candidate for Register and Recorder, an important office. Everybody can see that this office is coveted by the Democratic party. Evidence of this lies in their effort to get together behind a single candidate. In order to make this certain they have seen to it that they have but one candidate for this office.

Republican voters must choose from among 12 candidates. A candidate who has pronounced strength in every corner of the county and whose availability no one questions is about the right combination.

A little investigation will convince you that Edwin O. Reed of Mt. Jackson meets these requirements.

Respectfully submitted.

Large Crowd At Trinity Church

Rev. P. C. Pearson Has 10th Anniversary In City On Sunday

GIVES RESUME OF HIS SERVICE

A large congregation filled Trinity Episcopal church on Sunday morning, when the Rev. P. C. Pearson, rector of the church, observed the tenth anniversary of his rectorship here and gave an address of powerful spiritual character, during the course of which he presented some most interesting data relative to his work here during the ten year period of time.

His address was based on Hebrews 10: 24-25 and was of an appeal that was felt by the entire congregation. In the course of his address, Rev. Pearson dwelt on two phases of the work here, that of work and education and showed that had been done along those lines in his ministry of ten years.

At the conclusion of the sermon, two special prayers calling for the blessing of God on all and the unity of all in the interests of the Kingdom of God, were given.

In his address, Rev. Pearson expressed his appreciation of all persons and organizations of the church in the assistance given him in the conducting of the work of the parish. He gave a most interesting detailed analysis of the classes confirmed in the parish during his rectorship, in which an extraordinary loyalty to the church was shown on the part of the members of the classes.

School Holiday Is Continued As Second Case Of Infantile Paralysis Develops

With the development of a second case of infantile paralysis during the past week, school authorities and health officials in the Borough of Bessemer, decided today to continue the school holiday for another week in an effort to prevent further spread of the disease.

Unless more cases develop, the period of incubation will have ended by next Monday, and the schools will be able to open for the fall term. Health officials are hopeful that quarantine measures will prevent further spread of the disease.

The second case reported is that of Lois Chaddock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chaddock. Neither of the two cases found is of a serious nature, it is stated.

The disease is believed to have spread to Bessemer from the Youngstown district, where a number of cases were reported during the past month.

Two State Fliers Have Over 9000 Hours In Air

BY ARTHUR G. WINKER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 11.—Two Pennsylvania fliers are among the 35 licensed transport pilots of the country who have achieved a record of more than 9000 hours in the air, the Commerce Department reports.

One of these is M. A. Moltrop of Beaver Falls. Pilot Moltrop is credited with having 9000 to 10,000 hours of flying time. F. W. Soule of Wilkes-Barre is credited with more than 10,000 hours of flying time. Of the 38 pilots, 17 have more than 10,000 flying hours and 21 are listed as having from 9000 to 10,000.

Declares Repeal Program Unfair

National W. C. T. U. Head Declares Unfair Advantage Is Being Taken

BROOKLYN, Sept. 11.—Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the National W. C. T. U., has declared the use of the repealed economic condition to put over the repeal of prohibition is unfair, unethical and unstatesmanlike. She cited Postmaster General Farley's statement that repeal of the 18th amendment is an important part of the national recovery act. She said:

"Our publishing house was one of the first to comply with the NRA, but we are opposed to the repeal of the 18th amendment. If repeal comes the liquor traffic will come in like a flood. Much of the money spent for liquor will be diverted from the necessities of life. Legitimate business and the homes will suffer therefrom."

"We believe it is wrong that a country should derive revenue from that which injures its people. The outlook is that if repeal comes, the baneful effects of the liquor traffic will be increased even over prohibition days."

"We protest that men and women, on the plea of loyalty to the president and to a political party and on the plea that certain taxes will be reduced when and if repeal comes, are being forced to vote wet."

"The W. C. T. U. will continue its educational program against the use of alcohol in the home, at social functions, in public and in private. Whatever the nation may do, the W. C. T. U. refuses to retreat before the liquor traffic."

BEAVER Townships

MARSHALL REUNION

About 100 descendants of John and Elizabeth Marshall assembled in Big Beaver Grange hall Labor Day for their 17th annual reunion. The day was an ideal one and everybody enjoyed the day immensely.

An elaborate picnic dinner was served at noon in the dining room and a program of entertainment of music, readings, contests and stunts was presented after dinner, and a business session for the election of officers for the ensuing year, with the following result: president, Mrs. D. McHattie; vice president, Lawrence Moore; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. F. D. Marshall. Time and place of next reunion were not designated.

Eakin Showing Some Improvement

Some improvement has been noted in the condition of F. W. "Ky" Eakin of Wilmington avenue, who was struck by a golf club at Castle Hills some days ago. At first it was thought that the sight of his right eye was gone, but over the week end he could discern light and also make out the outline of things in his room. His physician is now more hopeful of saving the sight of the eye.

RETURN FORM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Webber, Mr. and Mrs. Sigford Webber, and Miss Rosa Brown, executive secretary of the Elm Street Y. W. C. A., have returned to their homes in this city after a visit at the World's Fair, Chicago.

LITTLE BILLY'S STAYING TO LUNCH, HE AND MY BOBBY ARE GREAT CHUMS I'D LOVE TO KNOW BILLY'S MOTHER BETTER ONLY—

ONLY SOMETIMES SHE'S RATHER CARELESS! POOR THING, THAT ONE FAULT KEEPS FRIENDS AWAY

LOOK, BOBBY! GEE AT ALL THIS LATHER, HOW CLEAN IT SMELLS!

IT'S LIFEBOUY WE ALWAYS USE IT. IF YOU AND YOUR MOTHER USE IT YOU WON'T EVER HAVE ANY "B.O."

YOU SAY THAT BOBBY'S FAMILY USES LIFEBOUY? WE'LL HAVE TO TRY IT, TOO

THEN WE WON'T EVER HAVE "B.O."

"B.O." GONE—everybody friends!

BILLY JUST ABOUT LIVES HERE, HE COMES OVER SO OFTEN AND I'M AFRAID I DO, TOO

YOU CAN'T RUN IN TOO OFTEN TO SUIT ME

AND IT'S DONE MY COMPLEXION A WORLD OF GOOD

"I WAS simply heart-sick about my skin. It was so dull, so cloudy-looking. Then Billy introduced Lifebuoy. I loved it—I used it for my face as well as my bath. Today my complexion is clearer than it has been in years—thanks to Lifebuoy's gentle lather.

This gentle lather purifies

No wonder Lifebuoy is so fine for the complexion. Its lather is purifying. It deep-cleanses face pores—deodorizes body pores. To guard against "B.O." (body odor), bathe with it regularly. You can tell by its fresh, wholesome quickly-vanishing scent that you're cleaner, safer with Lifebuoy!

New Castle Man Is Hero Of Forest Fire

Leads Crew Of Thirty Re-forestation Army Youths To Safety In West

Trapped Between Two Fires In Washington Woods For Five Days

J. Arthur Ray, New Castle boy, member of the Skykomish post of Forest Rangers, at Skykomish, Washington, proved himself a hero in a recent forest fire, which raged through that district recently bringing a detail of 30 men, trapped five days in the forest fire over a 22-mile front, to safety without the loss of a single life.

His comrades and superior officers were loud in their praise of his conduct, in the emergency and stated that it was only Ray's coolness which prevented the entire crew from being wiped out in the blaze.

Ray joined the Skykomish post last spring enlisting at Denver, Colo. and went to the state of Washington in May. In a short time, he was placed in charge of the powder crew, because of his early display of common sense, as the powder job must be handled with great care.

Cut Off By Blaze
On August 24, Ray was assigned to take charge of a crew of 30 men, all of them Reforestation Boys, with little experience in the woods. He left to fight the big fire which has been raging in the Skykomish district for 21 days. After being out two days, he was cut off from the rest of the Rangers, and there was no way to get provisions to them or to communicate with them. They had three day's rations in their packs.

They were to go through the Goldenbar pass and blast it, for the safety of the town, and were to return to the post by way of Snowqualline Falls, but were prevented from getting out by a new fire which started on the ridge above them.

On September 4, Ray and his men returned, all except one being on his feet, with only three being injured. Ray, himself, had received a broken arm and a minor injury to his left eye.

Eleven Rangers, including Ray, had left at the head of detachments to fight the fire, and Ray's group was the only one to return without a heavy casualty list.

News of the incident was received today from M. J. Clyde, of the Is-saquash Post, Forest Rangers, who stated that Ray had remarked that he might have been afraid, had it not been for the fact that he was too interested in watching the wild animals fleeing from the blaze.

City Pays Insurance For Relief Workers

City council convened in the city building today and Solicitor Robt. White reported that 655 Work Relief Employees had worked on city projects last month. A check for $141.00 was ordered sent to the State Workmen's Compensation Insurance board. The bill amounted to $163. However, White said the city had paid $22.75 too much before and recommended payment of $137.75.

GIRL ATTACKED BY KIDNAPERS

EVELYN HYSLOP

Pretty Evelyn Hyslop, 17-year-old dance hall waitress, of Terre Haute, Ind., has been located in East St. Louis, after being kidnaped with her escort in Brazil, Ind., by two men. The girl told police that she had been attacked and carried to East St. Louis, where she was freed, after the assailants robbed her companion and tied him to a fence near Brazil.

McDowell School Pupils Convene In First Reunion

Saturday almost two hundred persons, former teachers, pupils and their families of the McDowell school, assembled in the orchard of Tom McKnight, almost opposite from the old school house, for the first McDowell school reunion.

The one room school building, erected in 1876, has not been used since Hickory township consolidated her schools and built the brick building in East Brook. The district children are now transported to school by busses instead of trudging the weary miles, as the first pupils of the school did.

The happy faces of the group and the hearty expressions of joy upon recognition of an old school mate, not seen for forty or fifty years, manifested the glorious time each one was experiencing.

The noon hour the group gathered under the trees and spread the contents of their baskets upon the tables and the bounteous menu was supplemented by watermelon and bananas, the donation of John Brown, a popular pupil during 1886-70. A ball game on the old playground featured the afternoon and the group posed itself for pictures.

Election Of Officers
A business meeting was called and it was decided to hold the reunions annually and an organization was effected with Ben McDowell, Volant, R. D. 2, named president; E. McCreary, Volant, R. D. 3, secretary; and Nancy McConahy, New Castle, treasurer.

Miss Frances McDowell gave a short history of the school, citing the growth from the beginning in 1838 in the small log cabin of Abel McDowell, followed by a school building, also of log, which was built in the valley a short distance from the present building; the second building stood on the McDowell farm on the big hill opposite the present one, and in 1876 the present building was erected.

Eleven former teachers were present. They were: Mrs. Clara Rogers, teacher 1876-77; Miss Hanna McCracken, 1885-86; Mrs. Nannie Chambers Edie, 1890-91; Mary Perdue, Frances McDowell, 1899-01; Mrs. Louella Martin Jordan, Mrs. Bertha Patterson Shaw; Guy Lockhart, Jean Gilson, 1922-23; Mrs. Thelma Dolks Berstler, Mrs. Florence McCormick McCreary. Each teacher called the roll of her school and had her pupils rise. Many amusing incidents of school days were related by former pupils, among whom were Mrs. Emma Jane Smith, George Daniels and Rev. Grant Fisher, D. D.

Among Those Present
Those who attended were Mrs. Margaret McCreary Houston, Mrs. Nettie McCreary Duff, Mrs. Emma Jane McCreary Smith, Budd and Chester Dicks, Thelma Dicks Berstler, Sylvia Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Fisher, Helen Fisher, Mr. and

REPORT HUNT TO START FOR PYMATUNING SHIP

Andover Men Will Start Hunt

Believe Mystery Ship Is Mired In Swamp Of Pymatuning

RELIC OF VOYAGE OF 100 YEARS AGO

Story Of Ship Seems Improbable But Tradition Is Strong

ASHTABULA, O., Sept. 11.—Four men of Andover, southeast of here in Ashtabula county, today began a search of the swamps soon to be inundated by the great Pymatuning reservoir in a final effort to locate a ship which, histories say, sank more than a hundred years ago in a daring attempt to sail from the Ohio river through a series of small streams to the Great Lakes.

When sluice gates of the Pymatuning are finally closed to back up the water for the vast reservoir near here, the rising water will hide forever the evidence of the cruise unless the search of the Andover party proves successful.

The ill-fated effort was made more than a century ago when a pioneer skipper brought his Mississippi river boat up the Ohio, determined to reach the Great Lakes. Skillful navigation brought the craft up the Shenango to near Lanesville, Pa.

There, in the Shenango flats, now a marshy area, it became mired in the mud and sank.

The story of the ancient ship seems improbable but is told in detail in documents and books in possession of the Andover men.

Deserted by its crew, the ship settled in the water but not out of sight, the story goes. It has been sighted several times, how recently no one knows.

The flats will be buried under water when the reservoir is filled, which will be in about three years, although the water will be impounded about the first of next year.

Making a final effort to locate the hulk are Lloyd Osborne, cartoonist and traveler, who has been spending the summer here; Matthew Hayes, L. B. Butler and Robert Watson.

If found, the boat will be removed, if possible, and put into a museum.

Veterans Push New Bonus Plan

Veterans Of Foreign Wars Push Campaign For $50,000,000 Bonus Bond Issue

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 11.—Leaders of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Pennsylvania today pushed a campaign to effect adoption of the constitutional amendment providing for a $50,000,000 bonus bond issue.

Members attending the quarterly meeting of the central Pennsylvania association here passed a resolution urging every post to assign workers to all polling places in the state on election day in the interest of the proposed amendment. Approval by the voters would provide a bonus for Pennsylvania war veterans.

Officers elected were: R. D. Stambaugh, York, district commander; John Matthews, Lancaster, senior vice commander; Paul Knox, Harrisburg, junior vice commander; Myron Reese, Shomokin, chaplain; Frank Bonesky, Lancaster, adjutant.

Dry Campaign For Western Section Of Pennsylvania

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11.—National and state leaders of the Anti-Saloon League will bring their fight against repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment into 22 counties of Western Pennsylvania, it was learned today with the announcement of a series of rallies for these sections.

Beginning October 23 and extending until November 7, groups will hear selected speakers voice the case against repeal. Bishop Edwin H. Hughes, of the Washington area, Methodist Episcopal church; F. Scott McBride, national superintendent of the league; Dr. E. H. Cherrington, national educational committee chairman, and the Rev. Dr. Homer W. Tope, state superintendent, are included among the speakers.

STATE CANNERS SHOW INCREASE

By ARTHUR G. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 11.—One of the leading pea canning states, Pennsylvania canned about six per cent more peas in 1933 than in 1932, the Commerce Department reported today.

In 1932, Pennsylvania canneries put up 161,322 cases of peas. This year they increased the pack to 172,207 cases, a growth of 10,885 cases or about six per cent. The pack in the country as a whole increased from 1,117,784 cans in 1932 to 12,481,008 in 1933.

Family Reunited Result Of Murder

Members Of Family Of Marshall Steele Return Home He Is Placed In Jail

(International News Service)

BEDFORD, Pa., Sept. 11.—Members of the family of Marshall Steele, 65-year-old farmer, moved back into his house today after a two-month forced absence which William Steele, 24, a son, said resulted from an argument between his parents.

The return of the Steeles followed the aged farmer's imprisonment Saturday on charges of shooting to death 15-year-old Emma Snyder, the "belle of Hopewell," while she rode past the Steele home Friday night beside her sweetheart, William Steele.

The boy today declared he believed his father had aimed the shot at him but had missed and shot the girl instead. He said his father opposed his "going around" with the girl.

Workers To Decide On Ending Strike

(International News Service)

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 11.—Employees of the Walworth plant, on strike here since Thursday, were to ballot secretly today on whether to remain on strike or return to work.

Company officials and 400 foremen and workers who did not join the steel and metal works industrial union men last night and decided to attempt to break the strike by a ballot in the company cafeteria today. Disinterested clerks were to tabulate the result.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Sept. 11.—Keeping a stubborn silence as to her motive, Miss Wilhelmina Weltz, 43, San Francisco nurse was to be formally charged today with the murder of her former employer, Francis Joseph Morgan Grace, 57, retired multimillionaire importer and shipping man.

"I'm glad I did it," she told District Attorney J. Frank Murphy. "I'm perfectly sane. The reason I killed him would probably seem trivial to you."

She shot him to death at his showplace estate.

She mentioned "a long series of lies and insults" at Grace's hands. The nurse, who had been employed by Grace for a short period eight months ago, revealed that last January she made an attempt on his life in his San Francisco penthouse. Her gun was taken away and she was ejected, she said.

"There was no romance connected with it," Miss Weltz said. "He had insulted me and spread scandal about me, and I resolved to kill him a long time ago."

Police who searched Miss Weltz's room in San Francisco found a letter bearing the name of William F. Weltz, Kensington, Pa. She had lived in San Francisco for six years. Grace, a nephew of the late W. R. Grace, shipping magnate, has made his home in San Francisco and Santa Cruz since retiring from W. R. Grace and Co., fifteen years ago.

Raise Funds For Boycott Campaign

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Raising of a $500,000 fund to finance a nationwide boycott of German goods, shipping and services of all kinds started today under direction of the American League for the defense of Jewish rights, following a meeting here at which Americans of all races and creeds were asked to join Jews in the boycott.

The conference was attended by 200 Jewish leaders from all parts of the country.

"Dodge Mono-Piece Steel Body SAVED OUR LIVES"

—says J. F. Hutchinson, Iowa Minister

"I WAS driving to Chicago with my family to attend the World's Fair," says the Rev. J. F. Hutchinson, minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Storm Lake, Iowa, "but near Fort Dodge, another car suddenly cut across our path, forcing us into a deep ditch.

"My Dodge Six went down the embankment, turning over several times, struck a telephone post, breaking it off, then landed in the ditch rightside up.

"I feel certain that had it not been for the steel body of my Dodge car, my entire family would have been killed. The Dodge car saved us. We came through with no serious permanent injuries, miraculous as it seems.

"I have my dear family all with me, alive and getting well. My gratitude is deep and moving."

Rotarians Hear District Head

Dr. L. H. Beeler, District Governor, Is Speaker At Noon Meeting

ROUND ANNOUNCES CORN ROAST EVENT

Challenging New Castle Rotarians to greater service in four major club activities which he called the "four foundation stones of Rotary," District Governor Dr. Levi H. Beeler of Rotary's 33rd district today brought the official greetings of all his clubs to this city. Dr. Beeler is from Grove City.

In a most inspiring address, the district leaders placed stress upon the clubwork which he said would best demonstrate the value of the organization. The four were club service, vocational service, community service and international peace and good will. The latter is the sixth object of Rotary International.

Returning from the annual conference of district governors in Maine only recently, Dr. Beeler came supplied today with the complete story of Rotary International's program for the new year.

During the talk the district governor declared that "98 per cent of President Roosevelt's aides in his national recovery campaign are Rotary men," and that he paid high tribute to the men who have rallied to the president's call in a time of emergency. He said the 98 per cent constitutes the community leaders who have been selected to lead the NRA programs in a thousand American communities. That, he reminded, is part of Rotary's community service.

Dr. Beeler said the finest element for peace is love of country and not the despising of another, and he described it as the first essential of a Rotarian.

Concluding his message, Governor Beeler praised the New Castle club warmly for its work in this locality.

The Rotarians on Monday evening, September 18, will be guests of L. B. Round at a cornroast at Cascade park. The usual luncheon meeting will be held that day as usual.

Dr. Beeler, the honor guest today, is a professor at Grove City college.

Suit Discloses Unique Angle in Love Triangle

Usually the man in a love triangle is enamored of one of the women that form the other two sides, but according to Alfred C. Reade, Jr. (center), of Oakland, Cal., whose wife, Marion (left), is suing Claire Windsor, movie star (right), for alienation of affections, at Los Angeles, he is not particularly interested in the romantic affairs of either of the two women. Reade and Miss Windsor are shown in affectionate poses left and right. Mrs. Reade is asking the court to square the triangle by awarding her $100,000 as the price of the love she charges Miss Windsor stole. (Central Press)

How 'Chutes Saved Six Army Fliers in Fog

When the pilots and mechanics of three of seven army planes trapped by fog over New York while flying from Chicago to Mitchel Field, Long Island, found it necessary to "bail out" only one of the six new members of the "Caterpillar Club" was injured—and he, Major J. G. Colgan (inset), suffered only a sprained ankle. Map shows where the army airmen jumped, and photo, one of the crewless planes which landed on a bungalow at Island Park, Long Island.

American Beauties of Mauve — Jazz and NRA Ages

Beauty, a philosopher once said, is in the eye of the beholder. It would be difficult to get 50 persons out of a selected 100 to agree on what constitutes beauty, but it is interesting to review the gradual change in the standard of feminine pulchritude in the last two or three decades. Back in grandpa's prime, Anna Held, first wife of Florenz Ziegfeld, famous connoisseur of beauty, was acclaimed as the ideal type of feminine figure and charm. Of a similar type was Lillian Russell, of the divine dimples. The first appreciable change in the beauty standard was noticeable after the World War. Mary K. Campbell, the "Miss America" of 1922 and 1923, provides a striking contrast to the former types of beauty. Then came still another change, exemplified in the person of Dorothy Britton, selected as "Miss Universe" in 1927. Except for the change of hair style, the beauty standard has not changed much in six years, as may be noted by comparing "Miss Philadelphia" of 1933, Miss Florence Weiner, with "Miss Universe" of 1927.

Scout Picnic Fine Success

Troops And Leaders Are Represented At Big Outing Saturday

CAMPFIRE EVENT IS DAY'S FEATURE

Many Sign Petition Seeking To Have Road To Camp
Improved

The annual picnic for the Boy Scouts of Lawrence county, their parents, committeemen and leaders was held Saturday at Camp John M. Phillips on the Slippery Rock and proved a decided success. Nearly all the troops of the county were represented by either both Scouts and committeemen and in many instances by the parents of the scouts. The number in attendance was approximately a hundred. The Brownie Pack of the First United Presbyterian church was represented by a leader and a member.

Associated in the promotion of the affair were H. George Horton, county boy scout executive, Ralph Davis, scout commissioner; B. K. Thacker, third vice president of the Lawrence County Boy Scout council, and Scout Leaders E. D. Hawk, Sidney Smith, John Wilson and G. C. Carpenter.

The afternoon and evening was spent at the camp. Swimming, mushball and archery were the principal diversions of the afternoon. In the early evening a picnic dinner was enjoyed by the entire group in and under the trees adjacent to the camp dining hall.

After the dinner various sport events were held. Prizes were awarded the winners. The winners in the several events were: Boys' forward pass, Raymond Sizer; three-legged race for boys, Robert Back and Robert Stitz; three-legged water race, Charles Krause and H. Fink, and ball throwing contest for girls, Charlotte Back.

Campfire Is Feature

Following the events, a campfire was held in the natural amphitheatre. Sidney Smith and assisting scouts arranged the wood for the campfire. Scout Executive Horton started the campfire in the mystic manner of scouts calling on the four winds to assist. Suddenly there was a flash of blue then white and the flames leaped into life.

Scout Commissioner Davis then took charge as master of ceremony.

ies. The singing of Camp Phillips songs and other favorite songs prevailed first. B. K. Thacker, third vice-president, then told of how scouting paid and of the ten year plan in scouting. The balance of the program included more songs, and playing of "See the Ghost" by the scouts, several amusing sketches by Commissioner Davis, a talk on scouting in Lawrence county by Scout Executive Horton, a final song and the Scout benediction.

Troop Three of the First United Presbyterian church took the honors with thirty-eight leaders, scouts and parents in attendance.

Many signers of the petition asking the improvement of roads to and in the vicinity of the camp were secured.

PULPIT BIBLE IS PRESENTED

Gift Is Made To Epworth Church On Sunday By Former Residents

Acting for Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. McCreary of California, Senator George T. Weingartner on Sunday morning presented the congregation of Epworth Methodist Episcopal church with a handsome pulpit Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. McCreary are well known in New Castle and for many years were active members of Epworth church. Mr. McCreary was the teacher of the Women's Bible Class for many years and both he and his wife were active in the activities of the church.

At one time Mr. McCreary was an employee in the Court House but some years ago he and his wife decided to locate in California. While they are far away from their church home they still maintain an interest in it and some time ago asked Jas. Clements if a pulpit Bible was needed.

Informing that a new one would be most acceptable Mr. and Mrs. McCreary then had sent from California a beautifully bound pulpit Bible replete in cross references and will be a constant reminder of the kindness of the donors.

Fans To Swarm Into Castle Bowl Tonight

Rocco Battles Kennedy And Atkinson Boxes Tony Adamo

PAGLEY ON CARD; DOORS OPEN EARLY

Sixteen boxers are ready to enter the ring to participate in eight bouts at Castle bowl tonight and according to interest in the glove battles the bowl will swarm with fans and fanettes. The first bout will start at nine p. m. daylight savings time. George Rocco meets Gene Kennedy in the feature scrap and Tony Adamo battles Tommy Atkinson in the semi-final.

The inaugural of Amateur Athletic union boxing was held by the Jefferson Athletic Club with Ed. Fritz as matchmaker August 28 and it proved to be a treat for fandom. There was action from the opening bell until the last minute of the last round of the final scrap. All of the A. A. U. boxers demonstrated they had plenty to show and fans expect another whirl of action tonight. Weather conditions cannot interfere as there is a roof over the bowl.

George Rocco, a brother to Emmett, is considered one of the best middleweights in western Pennsylvania and Gene Kennedy, formerly of New Castle, now of Youngstown, has been cutting a wide swath in Ohio fistic circles. Rocco will be supported by a big Ellwood delegation who will augment his friends here. Kennedy will be cheered on by many of his former local friends and Ohioans.

Eddie Cieskey was taken ill Saturday according to reports received from Meadville by the matchmaker who stepped out and booked a better fighter than Cieskey when he signed Atkinson, one of the classiest 145 pounders that has ever stepped out of Ellwood City. He is a clever boxer, a stiff puncher and if Adamo "gets over" Atkinson he will have certainly stepped up the ladder.

Marini vs Arsett Johnny Tonoff of Youngstown will meet Mickle Cutie, the Youngstown and Farrell tournament flyweight champion in a three round whirl. Sonny Barry was to have fought Cutie but excused himself from the bout and Tonoff's plea that he be allowed to meet the king of the tourney 112 pounders was granted. He is a double fisted swifter. He is long on stamina and is a slugger.

A scrap of more than ordinary interest is scheduled between Cusky Marini of Ellwood City and Charlie Arsett of West Pittsburg. Marini won the lightweight championship of the Farrell meet and took a decision over Arsett in a previous bout. The West Pittsburg lad hopes to do better tonight. At any rate the bitter rivals will be "in there" punching and prancing every second.

Lew Tamber of Farrell sent word here yesterday that he would meet Yankee Pagley of this city, blow for blow. He wants to make himself solid with New Castle fans as the bowl will operate this winter and there are future battles in store for the winner. They are bantamweights.

Pete Branzovitch of Farrell will meet Bumps Wisconsin of New Kensington in another three round whirl and Mike Grayknack of Ellwood City will furnish the acid test for Eddie Owens, a local high school student who has become a disciple of Dime as his instructor. Owens has fought several times.

Young De Mott, also a local high school student, who was a Ben Franklin grid star, according to reports, will make his initial fistic debut with Frankie Rache of Bessemer, as his opponent. Owing to the fact that South Side and Owens, North Hill, having plenty of friends here they will be cheered lustily no doubt when they step into the ring. The doors of Castle bowl will open promptly at eight p. m. D. S. T. The first bout will start at nine p. m. D. S. T.

St. Andrews Fans Are Up In Air As Result Of Article

St. Andrews mushball team and fans are up in the air today as a result of the East Side Merchants mushball team claiming they won the game from the St. Andrews team at Gaston park last Friday night.

The St. Andrews team, according to Dave Riley, was in scoring position when the Merchants walked off the field and refused to play the game. The game did not go six innings, according to Dave Riley. Through an excusable error by the umpire the game ended in a controversy.

St. Andrews has offered to play the Merchants a five-game series to settle the dispute and will use paid umpires. The two teams have played six times this year and each team has won three games. According to Riley, St. Andrews mushball team and fans feel that an injustice was done them through the erroneous statement made by the East Side Merchants.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES

ALEX. MORRISON says:

Most of the difficulty you have in properly aiming the clubface for a shot is due to the way your hands are placed on the club.

You probably pick up the club and take your grip while the club is in the air.

This may enable you to arrange your hands in the right relation to each other, but it makes it almost impossible for you to have them in the right relation to the clubface.

You'll do a great deal toward straightening out your shots by having the clubhead resting on the ground when you take your grip.

Radiators And St. Andrews To Battle Tonight

Hope To Start East Side Mushball League Championship Series This Week

Radiators and St. Andrews will be the only scheduled game tonight in the East Side mushball league. A collection for Lee "Newt" Campbell, injured Spencer mushball player, will be taken up tonight at Gaston park field.

With the Radiators so far in front for the second half of the season it is not deemed necessary for the other teams to finish the season out unless they care to. If the teams desire to play the schedule out Croton will oppose Oak A. C. at Radiator field. The Spencers have finished the season and will not play the Young Yanks tonight. St. Nicholas and the East Side Merchants are scheduled at Rose avenue field.

President Walther had ruled that the teams do not need to carry out the schedule. It is desired to get the mushball championship series started and there is little chance of the Rads being topped.

Running Races Fair Feature

Will Be Added To Regular Program Of Trotting And Pacing

MULE RACES ALSO TO BE ATTRACTION

For many years harness races have been the attraction at the New Castle Fair. Trotters and pacers, some of them breaking 2:05 and some of them unable to break 2:25, but regardless of the time the races were always the same.

This year it will be different. The runners will be an added attraction and by runners there is no reference intended to Charley Paddock. The runners are the horses that are raced without carts. The runners are the racers that bring people to their feet and their blood pressure to the danger point when they sweep down the home stretch with the jockeys riding way out on their necks.

A. Clyde Shoaf was at the Wheeling Fair recently, the state fair of West Virginia and got promises from 20 of the running horse owners that they would come to the New Castle Fair on September 19-20-21. And this year every shade of horse race lover will have his particular kind of race.

Added to the harness races and the running races, which will be stirring affairs, will be the mule races which will be for a bucket of fun. You may think a mule can't run, but once they set their mind to it they can breeze along with a fairly good horse. The difficulty is to get their muleh minds on the race.

Two or three more members are expected to camp this week. The arrival of these men will give Lawther a squad of 28 or 29 men. At present there are 10 backs and 16 linemen in camp. Of this number 10 are lettermen and 10 others have seen action in contests last year or the year before. Most of the squad members are juniors.

Assistant Coach Martin had the men working on the tackling dummy during the latter part of the week, but the heavier linemen broke the pulley and rope and the machinery had to be repaired. The backfield men have concentrated on something up plays, while the linemen have been given sprints, charging and leg work pushing the bucking machine.

Rough and Tumble Tennis

Once upon a time tennis was a somewhat mild game, played without excessive expenditure of energy or loss of dignity. Now, however, the game has progressed to a point where acrobatics play a prominent part. The above series of pictures, made during the national championships at Forest Hills, N. Y., illustrate the point. Reading from top, Lester Jofen, Los Angeles, plays a shot from an unusual position; next, Fred Perry, of England, goes away down to return a ball; then we have, lower, Frank Shields, of New York, seated on the grassward, his racket lost, playing back the ball with his bare hand.

Weather Keeps Titan Gridders From Scrimmage

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Sept. 11.—Mid-summer weather conditions during the past week kept the Westminister College football squad from scrimmage sessions, but Coach John Lawther and Assistant Coach Jack Martin are hopeful for cooler weather this week when the squad will be sent through its first rough work of the training period.

Two or three more members are expected to camp this week. The arrival of these men will give Lawther a squad of 28 or 29 men. At present there are 10 backs and 16 linemen in camp. Chicago Cubs Given Chance To Top Giants

Cubs Advance To Second Place As Pirates Split With Brooklyn

GIANTS WIN TWO FROM CINCINNATI

By COPELAND C. BURG

International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Baseball players think the Chicago Cubs are going to win the National League pennant.

These gent's, who never stop to figure out anything, just letting things live their course like a man stepping on a banana peel, don't know why they have such a fine opinion of the Chicagoans, but they image them in a last-minute pennant drive that will end with the New York Giants inside, looking out from second place.

Driven into a corner and clubbed into submission, these heroes of the diamond admit they are impressed by the Cubs' pitchers, Warneke, Root and Tinning and they think catcher Gabby Harnett is liable to break up anybody's ball game as unexpectedly as the arrival of a process server.

Cubs Keep Going Mr. Tinning had one of his better days Sunday and the Cubs observed Dolph Camilli Day as they revived their hopes of another pennant. Tinning held the Phillies to six hits and the Bruns annexed a 4 to 0 shutout in the opener. In the nightcap Dolph Camilli, first baseman up from Sacramento of the coast league, hit a homer off John Berly, breaking up a 2 to 2 tie in the sixth inning and giving Chicago a 4 to 2 success.

The double win put the Cubs into second position in place of the fading Pittsburgh Pirates, but the Giants maintained a seven and a half game lead as they subdued the Cincinnati Reds, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1. Carl Hubbel, ace of the New Yorkers, came to the rescue of Fred Fitzsimmons when the Reds threatened in the opener's seventh inning and retired the last nine of the enemy to win, 6 to 1. Hal Schumacher brought the Giants their fourth victory in a row with effective hurling in the 11-inning vesper, 2 to 1. Frank O'Doul pinch-hit a long fly in the eleventh, permitting Ott, who had doubled, to score the run that won.

Frankhouse failed as iron man for the Boston Braves. He was bad in the first game with Bill Hallahan holding the Braves to four hits when St. Louis won 7 to 0 and he hadn't improved a bit in the finale when he was called to relieve Smith. The Cardinals shelling him again to roll it away, 10 to 5.

Pirates Split Pitcher Bill Swift was lucky in winning for Pittsburgh 2 to 1 on two unearned runs contributed by Brooklyn but fate made it even in the second tilt when the Bucs handed the Dodgers a pair of tallies and a 3 to 2 triumph.

Not that it made any difference, the New York Yankees reduced the lead of Washington in the American League by beating Detroit twice, 2 to 1 and 9 to 1. Vernon Gomez scored a lucky win over Carl Fischer, who let down the Yanks with four hits, in the opener. Johnny Allen gave the Tigers only three hits in the after-piece, fanned twelve and walked two.

West Perrell, trying to be a gardener, missed a fly and aided Washington to take it 7 to 3, from Cleveland. The Senators are no weight and a half games in front.

Friends from Lynn, Mass., his home town, gave Bump Hadley a nice wrist watch and there was nothing Bump could do but show he was good. So he held the Boston Red Sox to five hits to give St. Louis a 3 to 2 victory. Johnny Welch walked his hurling enemy, George Blaeholder, after ten thrilling innings of a useless ball and when the eleventh inning was finished Welch had gone the way of all flesh, the Browns scoring four runs to make it, 4 to 0.

Boston 0, Blaeholder limited the Sox to seven safeties. The Athletics and White Sox were idle.

Football Season Will Open Friday

New Castle's football season will swing open Friday night of this week at Taggart stadium when New Castle high school football team and Braddock high will take up their positions on the greensward under the floodlights. This is the first of a tough 11-game program for Pa. Newc's sons.

This is the final week of polishing up. Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh has a plenty of work to do in the short time left before he must present his eleven for the inspection of the fans. When the New Castle team takes to the field Friday night they will be as near letter-perfect as is possible in the early part of the season. The week at camp and the week at Taggart field have served to put the team in fine fettle.

Gardner Is Active Faculty Manager Ralph Gardner is one of the busiest young men at Taggart field these days. Gardner is supervising the erection of the bleacher seats, seeing to it that the goal posts are fixed up and a hundred and one various details that must be taken care of before the stadium is presentable for the opening battle.

The floodlights are being renovated and painted, and with their new shade of green present a very nice appearance. It has been suggested that the poles be painted white, which would set off the color scheme at Taggart stadium just right. White poles and green reflectors would make it a natty layout.

Princeton And Ryantown Enter Series For Title

Princeton Will Play At Ryantown Field Tuesday Evening In First Of Series

ARE WINNERS OF INDEPENDENT LOOP

Princeton baseball team champions of the American division of the Independent baseball league, and Ryantown champions of the National division will play a five game series starting Tuesday night at the Ryantown Field for the Independent championship in Lawrence County.

The Princeton team finished the short season with 11 victories and two defeats, while Ryantown was just a bit better in their league with 12 victories and but one defeat.

The series games will start at 6 o'clock. Only players that were in the league games are eligible. The second game of the series will be played at the Princeton Field on Thursday evening, and the teams will return to the Ryantown field for the third game Friday night.

Final arrangements for the championship series was made at a meeting held at the Y Saturday night with Chairman Kenneth Lutz in charge. The teams were all enthusiastic over the short-season and plan a league for next summer.

Steel Worker Fatally Hurt

Bridge At Knox Collapses
As It Is Being Razed;
Killing Workman

FRANK HART, 48,
ACCIDENT VICTIM

Remains Taken To Home In Crafton; Leaves Widow
And Two Children

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 11.—Frank Hart, aged 48 years, of 1220 Hollywood avenue, Crafton, Pa., met instant death about 1:45 Saturday afternoon, when the old Knox bridge, on the Harmony line, a mile east of Ellwood City, collapsed, hurling Hart to the rocks in the bed of the Connoquenessing river.

Hart, who was a structural steel worker, was engaged in cutting the bridge apart with an acetylene torch. About half of the bridge had been cut away, when the remaining portion suddenly collapsed.

The dead man clung to the falling bridge, and as it turned over, he crawled around onto the top side, but was hurled violently to the ground, head first, when it struck the bed of the stream, fifty feet below where he had been working.

The dead man had been at work on the job only four days, having started the task of cutting up the bridge for a Pittsburgh junk firm last Tuesday.

He leaves a wife and two children in Crafton.

Cosmon Orville Potter, who investigated the fatality, pronounced Hart's death as accidental.

Ernest Sawatzke and O. W. Kulmer, both of Pittsburgh, who were working with Hart, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury when the bridge collapsed. They were directly beneath the structure when it started to drop slowly. They were able to scramble to safety over the rocks in the creek bed, but were only clear of the bridge by a few feet when it crashed.

Death Claims

Mrs. E. Koach

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 11.—Following a brief illness Mrs. Lydia Wilson Koach, aged 44, succumbed at the local hospital last evening at 11:30. Mrs. Koach was a well known and much respected resident of this city and her death brings sorrow to many relatives and friends.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, Elsworth Koach; one daughter, Kathryn Koach; her mother, Mrs. Anna Wilson, who resides at the Koach home; three brothers, David Wilson of New Brighton, Kenneth Wilson of Ellwood and Carl Wilson of Allensburg, Mich., and three sisters, Mrs. Lillian Curry of Bridgewater, Mrs. Anna Hays of New Brighton and Mrs. Harriet Byers of Ambridge.

Funeral services will be held from the late home, 632 First avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 with Rev. W. E. Minter, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment will be made in the family plot in the Lilyville Lutheran cemetery.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS
ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 11.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wagner near Wurttemberg was the scene of a merry gathering on Saturday evening when a circle of friends gathered there for the evening.

A wide variety of outdoor games and contests with music were the diversions whiling away the hours in a pleasant manner. At a late hour a bonfire was built and a corn and wiener roast enjoyed around its cheering blaze closing the evening to a delightful breeze.

Success Crowns Foreman's Picnic

Special Addresses Given By
G. P. McNiff, J. W. Offutt And Fred L. Rents

SPLENDID PROGRAM IS CARRIED OUT

ELLWOOD CITY Sept. 11.—Success in every detail crowned the second annual picnic of the Foreman's club of the Ellwood City National Tube company Saturday afternoon and evening at Wines' grove on the New Brighton road. Nearly 300 members of the club and a number of special guests participated in the events of the day.

A delicious dinner was served at 1 o'clock where W. Bruce Hunter presided as toastmaster. When the variety of food was disposed of by time, it became Mr. Hunter's lot to keep these contented gentlemen entertained. He handled this situation in a professional like manner.

The feature of the dinner program was addressed by G. P. McNiff, assistant vice-president of the National Tube company; J. W. Offutt, general superintendent of the local plant; and Fred L. Rents, county NRA chairman. Each of the speakers gave short addresses on the general topic of the day—NRA. The three speakers told how the act is applied and functions in various industries. The talks were enlightening and interesting.

Several prizes were awarded as results of the many games and contests carried out during the day. Two cash prizes were presented to J. A. Pearson and W. H. Bralley by A. P. Jordan, chairman of the safety committee, for the best practical safety suggestion applicable to the Ellwood plant. Warren Wilson and Carl Newton were tied for the gate award, as were Claude Duncan and John Druschel in the refreshment contest.

In the sports events C. H. Wallace won the rope climbing contest, Pat Cullinan the horseshoe pitching contest, Dick Downing the baseball throwing contest, Perry Weigle the golf driving contest and Emmett Liebenдорfer the golf pitching contest. The mullsbull game between the old and new hot mills ended in a 2-2 deadlock.

A luncheon was served by a committee at 6 o'clock. Refreshments were served throughout the day. Music for the affair was supplied by Steinberger's orchestra of this city.

Credit for the success of this affair goes to General Chairman Paul Flautz and his committees which are as follows:

Transportation—W. J. Welskopf, Publicity—H. E. King, Lunch—E. R. Slavin, Refreshments—John Brunot, Sports—R. A. Downing, Grounds—C. B. Houk, Finance—W. G. Thorp, Prizes—John Lindgren, Safety—A. P. Jordan, Music—John Wargo, Reception—W. B. Hunter.

Tindall Clan Holds Reunion

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 11.—Saturday proved to be an enjoyable day for the descendants and friends of the late William and Sarah Jane Tindall when they gathered at the Willow on the Wampum road to hold their thirty-fifth annual reunion with descendants, numbering 45, attending from Mt. Jackson, New Castle, Mahoning to W. Willow Grove and Wurttemberg.

Both dinner and supper were served at long tables heavily laden with many delicacies and attractively decorated with garden flowers. An election of officers was held during the business meeting and resulted as follows: President, N. M. Tindall, Willow Grove; vice president, Alice Taylor, Mahoningtown; secretary, Mrs. Taylor, Mahoningtown; and treasurer, Mrs. N. M. Taylor, Willow Grove.

Various diversions were in order during the day and late in the evening the group disbanded to meet again next year the first Saturday of September at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Tindall of Wurttemberg.

Barn Is Burned; Cows, Horses, Die

Structure On Elmer Suders Farm Near Koppel Is Prey To Flames

FIRE PROTECTION
ENTIRELY LACKING

KOPPEL, Sept. 11.—Fire of unknown origin leveled a two-story barn on the farm of Elmer Suders, Koppel-Wampum road about 11 o'clock on Friday night burned to death a number of cows, chickens and horses and caused an estimated damage of $1,500.

The glare of the flames awakened members of the family, but the fire had gained headway that efforts to enter the barn and rescue the livestock were useless.

Two cows, several score of chickens and two horses perished in the blaze. A quantity of farm machinery and grain stored in the building were totally destroyed. The glare in the sky could be seen for miles around, and many hundreds of persons were attracted to the scene. There were no fire departments and the blaze burned itself out. Efforts of helpers being futile, the only way left on the farm having gone dry a few days ago it was believed that there was no insurance carried on the barn. Outbuildings and fences were torn down in order to check the spread of the fire to the house.

Tonight Is First Night To Register For Night School

Students Will Be Registered For Night School Courses First Three Days

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 11.—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week are registration nights for all those interested in night school classes. The hours are from seven to nine and the place is the Lincoln building.

A registration fee of $2.50 is necessary for registration. This fee to be returned at the end of the year if 75% of the classes have been attended. Shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, English, gymnasium for girls, Americanization, cabinet making and mechanical drawing are the courses being offered this year. It is hoped that a large number of students will take advantage of this opportunity to attend night school.

Dinner Honors Visitors Sunday

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Rayser of Bayonne, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rayser, Miss May Werner and Selge McDaniel, of Port Arthur, Texas, who enroute to Chicago have been guests at a dinner party Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clarke of Ellwood.

Covers were arranged for thirty-five guests at one long attractively arranged table and the hostess assisted by a number of ladies served a most sumptuous dinner. The afternoon hours were spent informally with visiting and music being the pastime.

Perry Defeats Jack Crawford To Take Title

Fred Perry Second Englishman To Win U. S. Singles Title In 52 Years

TITLE MATCH
HARD FOUGHT

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—The Union Jack of England, after a lapse of 20 years, waved supreme in the tennis world again today.

Fred Perry who pulled his country through to victory in the Davis cup team competition, made it a grand slam for John Bull when he added the United States singles laurels to his list of prizes, conquering Jack Crawford in a five-set final at Forest Hills, to give the national championship its second English winner in 52 years of play.

Not since the Doherty brothers were mopping up on the courts a generation ago, has England been tops in tennis circles. John Bull came back with a vengeance, however, and judging by the form displayed by Perry at Forest Hills, England is going to make tough beating when it defends its Davis cup laurels next July.

There are those who will dispute the new United States title-holder's right to world singles laurels, pointing to his failure at Wimbledon and to his earlier defeat by Crawford in the Anglo-Australian Davis cup tie. But a large majority of the 9,000 fans who watched him register his 6-4, 11-13, 4-6, 6-0, 6-1 triumph over the husky Australian are willing to concede him the no. 1 post in the world ranking.

Colonial And Elder In Series

A good crowd is expected to see the first game.

Heroes-Goats In Big League

(International News Service)
The hero—Dolph Camilli, Chicago Cubs. Just up from Sacramento of the Coast league, this new major league first baseman cracked a homer to shatter a tie and win for Chicago over Philadelphia, 4 to 2.

The goat—Johnny Welch, Boston Red Sox. After pitching fine ball for ten innings, he weakened as he walked a man in the eleventh and the St. Louis Browns scored four runs to grab it, 4 to 0.

WIN FIRST GAME
Pearson A. C. won their first football game of the season Saturday at Centennial field when they beat Bonzo Midgets 42 to 0.

CARNEGIE MIDGETS

Carnegie Midgets mullsbull team won its fifty third game when they defeated Prasso mullsbull team 16 to 10 on Genkinger field.

Pomona Grange Meets In Hall At Big Beaver

Lawrence County Pomona Grange No. 65, P. of H. met in the Big Beaver Grange hall Wednesday.

The opening session was at 10:30 o'clock, with Worthy Master W. S. Fullerton presiding. The executive committee and nine officers in their chairs when the roll call of officers was called. Vacant chairs were overseer, gatekeeper, Pomona and Ceres.

The forenoon session in fifth degree opened with group singing two verses of "America the Beautiful". The regular routine of old and new business was taken up. Interesting reports were made by several officers, stressing the importance of Grange records of the work done in the Pomona and subordinate Granges.

Address of welcome was made by J. Dale McHattie, master of the Big Beaver Grange, and the response was made by David F. Kyle of the North Beaver Grange.

The afternoon session included unfinished business and followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. A. M. Doak of Big Beaver, accompanied at the piano by her daughter, Marjorie Doak. Given Shaw of Plaingrove gave a very interesting talk on the "Ten-Year School Plan". J. C. Brittain of Big Beaver gave a short talk on "Control of Wheat Production in Lawrence County". Other features of the program were:

Address, J. Audley Boak, master of Pennsylvania State Grange; reading, Mrs. Chalmers Hazen of Pleasant Hill Grange; address, John H. Light, secretary of Pennsylvania State Grange; group singing, followed by a debate: resolved that the old-time local school district should be retained; affirmative, John W. Bronson of Big Beaver Grange and Mrs. J. O. Cameron of Liberty; negative, George Patterson of East Brook and Irwin Ropp of New Bedford. The talks made by each debater on this subject were fine. Vocal solo, Robert Byler of Westfield.

FACE RAW FROM ECZEMA Quickly Healed

"My face was as raw as a piece of beefsteak from Eczema and in a short time it was healed. I used nothing but San-Cura Ointment and Soap."—Wm. Wergaff, 4200 Huntington Drive, Los Angeles, Cal. "I had a rash similar to Eczema which was terribly uncomfortable and annoying. After several months of doctoring with medicine and quartz lamp treatments which gave no relief, I used San-Cura Ointment and in a couple of weeks the rash all cleared up. My baby had Eczema on his face and San-Cura Ointment cleared it up as nothing else had done."—Mrs. H. W. Davis, 1517 E. 65th St., Chicago, Ill. San-Cura Ointment 35c and 60c. All Druggists.

Dinner was served by the Big Beaver Grangers at five o'clock, soon after the close of the afternoon session.

The evening meeting at eight o'clock opened with several selections by the Big Beaver Grange orchestra, under direction of Prof. W. H. McCullough.

The entire program of the evening was put on by the young people of the subordinate Granges. Group singing, led by W. H. McCullough; piano duet, Helen Houk and Margaret Long of East New Castle Grange; vocal duet, Irene Plaingrove; stunt, playlet, "Happy Days Are Here Again", by several members of Pleasant Hill Grange; vocal solo, "Silvia", by Robert Henderson of North Beaver; one-act play in two scenes, "Arrested for Speeding", by Willard Grange; piano solo, Elizabeth Ropp of New Bedford; one-act play, "Squaring It with the Boss", Mahoning Valley Grange; group sing, "The Church in the Wilderness"; one-act play by members of Wilmington Grange, "A Perplexing Situation".

Several visitors from neighboring counties were in attendance, including 13 Beaver county Granges and one from Clarion county. Brief remarks were made by Mr. Henry of Clarion county; Pomona Master Gilbert Sohn of Beaver county and Mrs. Sara Caven, state Grange Ceres, of Beaver county.

Booster meeting dates and places were announced as follows: Big Beaver Grange October 6, with Pleasant Hill, North Beaver and Westfield. Next group meeting will be at Mahoning Valley Grange hall October 13, with New Bedford, East Brook and Wilmington Granges, and the third group meeting, October 20, at Plaingrove, with Willard, East New Castle and Liberty Granges. At each of these meetings a class of new candidates will receive instructions in the fifth degree.

A short program will be presented at each of these scheduled meetings, a number to be presented from each of the four Granges in a group.

The day's activities closed with all joining in singing "Be with You". Closing of Pomona.

The next meeting, at Pleasant Hill Grange, December 6, at which time the election of officers will take place.

WORLD WAR VETS TO MEET TONIGHT

World War Veterans of Lawrence County will hold an important session in their meeting rooms, 106 East Washington street, at 8 o'clock this evening, to which all veterans in the county are invited to attend. This meeting is an important one. Commander Llewellyn states, and a full attendance is requested.

If the two points are prosperity and bankruptcy, the shortest distance between them is a dotted line.

INVITE LOCALS TO HEAR NRA DEPUTY

Johnson's Aide To Speak To Regional Leaders At Pittsburgh Thursday

Industrial leaders of Lawrence county are planning to attend a meeting of the Allegheny Regional Advisory board in Pittsburgh on Thursday, September 14, at which time Deputy Administrator Malcolm Muir of the National Recovery Administration at Washington will explain the federal act in its entirety. Mr. Muir will speak at the William Penn hotel.

New Castle industrialists and railroaders are invited along with 500 others from within a radius of 200 miles of the Pittsburgh district. It will be a public meeting.

Charles Donley, Pittsburgh, is general chairman of the regional board. The talk of the federal man will bring to a close the Allegheny board's 24th convention.

To Keep Schools Closed Another Week At Youngstown, O.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 11.—An order was issued today by Dr. C. H. Beight, health commissioner, keeping Youngstown public and parochial schools closed another week because of the spread of infantile paralysis. Dr. Beight also urged that parents keep their children out of the theatres, churches and other public gatherings during the siege of the epidemic.

Many pastors announced that Sunday schools were not in session Sunday morning. County schools will open on schedule tomorrow. There are only a few scattered cases in the county but a score in the city. City schools were to have opened September 5.

Chicago Man Is Held As Slayer Of Two By Axe

Wife And Step-Daughter Chopped To Death By Man Swinging Heavy Axe

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Swinging an axe with maniacal fury, Peter Kowalsczek, 42, chopped his wife and step-daughter to death at their home here today.

The victims were Mrs. Lillian Kowalsczek, 31, and her daughter by a former marriage, Anna Nicholas, 9.

Captured shortly after, Kowalsczek told police he was jealous of his wife.

The cost of sending daughter to college is any sum you figure it will be, plus $480.65.

Agenda Will Honor Own College Group

Honoring three of their members who depart this week to enter schools or begin teaching duties, the New Castle Agenda club will hold a dance on Thursday evening, September 14. Plans were made at a meeting last night.

The group also discussed plans for entering a team in a basketball league here this winter, and "Sac" Levin and "Laz" Shifman were named to make arrangements. The annual New Year's ball of the club was also discussed. Alec Samuels will handle the plans.

Gus Slavovskiy and Harold Gerson were appointed to plan a private dance for October.

William Winick, Herman Levine and Al Plant are the three Agenda men who will leave the city shortly.

The cost of sending daughter to college is any sum you figure it will be, plus $480.65.
